

Penguins

by Deanna

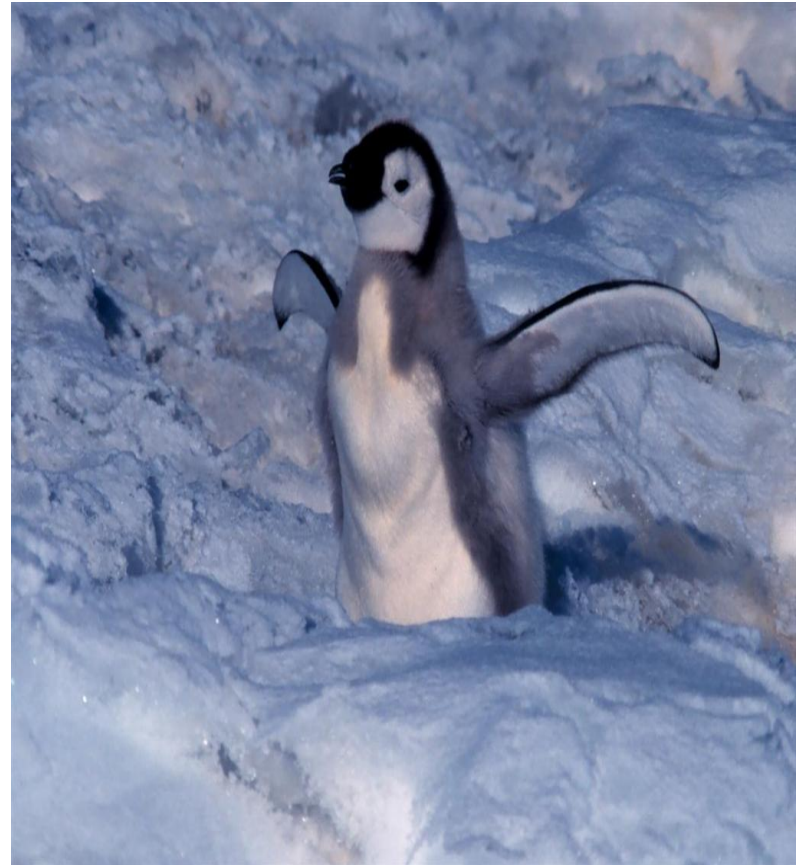

What does a penguin eat ?

- They eat fish, squid, crabs and shrimp.
- They find their food in the water.
- The parents get food for their children.

What does a penguin look like ?

- Penguins have orange feet with black and/or white fur.
- Their beak can be black, red, bright purple or orange.

What is a penguins enemy ?

- Penguins fear seals, sea lions, killer whales and leopards.
- The killer whales can jump up on the ice and get the penguins.
- They also have to be careful underwater because they could get eaten there too.

Penguins habitat

- They live in a cold place.
- They live in Antarctic.

Penguins life cycle

- The female lays the egg and goes to sea leaving the egg with the male.
- She comes back the egg is hatched and the male goes to sea for food.
- When the baby penguin is old enough he joins a group of penguins called a crèche.
- Then goes to sea for food and comes back looking for a mate.

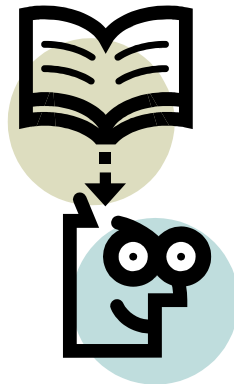

Interesting facts

- Millions of years ago penguins could fly.
- They started going in the water more so their wings were wet and you cant fly with wet wings.
- In the picture there is penguins flying.

Recourses

- www.worldbook.com
- Penguins by Sylvia A. Johnson
- Penguins by Keith Reid

Penguins picture

